

Inspire. Imagine. Innovate!

The 21st Annual National Service-Learning Conference®

San Jose, California – March 24-27, 2010

Service-Learning Bookstore

Centrally located in the Exhibit Hall, the on-site Service-Learning Bookstore offers a wealth of resources to enhance service-learning programs. Find publications from leading service-learning organizations. Choose from a huge collection of literature for classroom use in elementary, middle, and high schools as well as college programs.

Looking for a book to motivate staff or curriculum and reflection ideas? A novel to motivate middle school students to address bullying at school? Need a picture book to stimulate discussion on hunger, the environment, or social justice issues? Or one that suits your environmental science class? Wanting to expand global literacy? The bookstore offers an assortment of books to match your service-learning program.

Purchase Orders Accepted!

Plan ahead with your school or school district, secure a purchase order and come to shop. Our appreciation to the woman-owned independent True Colors Bookstore which hosts our on-site bookstore. Based in the Minneapolis-St. Paul area, these folks travel each year to our conference locations to make these exceptional books — fiction and nonfiction — available.

Special Book Tours

Join colleagues of Cathryn Berger Kaye to tour and discover must-have treasures to take back home. Check the program and bookstore for times.

Bookstore Questions?

If you are a nonprofit wanting to sell your books at the conference, please direct your inquiries to Maddy Wegner at mwegner@nylc.org.

Note

We encourage all attendees to purchase books ahead of the scheduled book signings and to visit the bookstore often!

Please circulate this information to others in your region who are attending the conference.
