Community Service and Service-Learning Campus Information

If your institution has a strong community service and/or service-learning presence on campus, please highlight this with your display, materials and/or staffing. Please have a variety of collateral materials available at your booth — both traditional admission materials and information regarding your campus community service and/or service-learning program(s). We encourage you to bring along a representative from your community service and/or service-learning program(s) to join your admission staff at the college fair.

Publicity Information

Participating colleges and universities will be listed by organization name in the conference program guide.
